

A TERRIFIC FIRE.

One of the Most Terrible Conflagrations Going On

EVER KNOWN OF IN THE SOUTH.

Nashville, Tennessee, at the Mercy of the Flames.

Louisville and Chattanooga Wired for Help—Lives Lost and Much Wealth.

Associated Press Dispatches.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 2.—The most destructive conflagration ever known in the south began in this city tonight. The loss at 10 p. m., after the flames had been in progress three hours, reached fully $1,000,000, with the fire yet raging. Several lives are reported lost and help has been wired from Louisville and Chattanooga. A strong wind blowing has made the outcome doubtful. The blocks between Church and Union, and Cherry and College streets, are burned down and the fire has made its way steadily toward the Western Union Telegraph company's office, located at the corner of College and Church streets.

THE OLD STORY.

The Injured Husband Wants Damages for His Lost Affections.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 2.—Today Judge McKinley and a jury were listening to testimony in a seduction case. So far as developed it appears to be the same old story of a weak woman falling the prey of a clever man. The persons who play the leading roles are Francisca Bedan, the wife of M. Bedan, and A. Turner, a prepossessing young man of perhaps 30 years of age. The husband of the woman is the plaintiff in this action and asks for $20,000 damages. He claims that on December 15, 1890, Turner forced his wife to submit to his amorous embraces, and in consequence she is shortly to be a mother. After accomplishing his purpose Turner induced the woman to satisfy his passion. As a consequence her affections were alienated, and the husband in consequence suffers great mental anguish, etc.

The first witness put upon the stand was Mrs. Bedan. She was a plain looking woman, who has evidently worked hard all her life for a living. In fact she is the last woman one might suspect of falling in the clutches of a strange man. Yet appearances are often times deceptive. She proceeded to give her version of her first meeting with Turner. She went to his house on Grand avenue to do drudge work—scrubbing, cleaning windows, etc. Late in the afternoon of December 15, after working faithfully all day, she happened to meet Turner at the house and he opened a conversation with her. He inquired about herself, if she were tired, and what she did at night, etc.

Mrs. Bedan was reticent, but conversed modestly, and told something about herself. Mrs. Bedan was about continuing to tell what followed, but was interrupted by the attorney for the defense, who objected to the witness testifying the circumstances of her relations with Turner, as a wife is not competent to testify in a case of this character. The woman was withdrawn, and Detective Anderson was called to tell what he knew. He had been employed to gather information about prearranged meetings last summer between the woman and Turner. It was understood that a compromise was desired by the interested parties; Turner was willing to settle in that way, and the woman was to meet him at his house. They met three times, and each time Anderson was on hand to overhear what might be said. He secreted himself behind some bushes, but unfortunately for him he was not able to catch what passed between the couple, for the reason that Turner would immediately take Mrs. Turner down cellar and lock the door. Of course, this was discouraging to the detective and to everybody else but Mrs. Bedan and Turner.

DR. GRAVES IS GUILTY.

The Jury Declares He Murdered Mrs. Barnaby.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 2.—The jury has found Dr. Graves, the prominent Boston physician, guilty of murder in the first degree, for poisoning Mrs. Barnaby, a wealthy widow, of Providence, who died here from the effects of a bottle of whiskey sent her by Graves. The latter was Mrs. Barnaby's business adviser and the crime was committed to obtain money which she had bequeathed to him.

FROZE TO DEATH.

TRUCKEE, Cal., Jan. 2.—Henry Gerkin, a native of Bremen, Germany, aged 62 years, was frozen to death last night. He had been in ill health for some weeks and was slightly deranged, and last night sprang out of the rear window of his cabin and went eighty feet toward the Truckee river. The snow was five feet deep, and he was found dead this morning.

No Interference Authorized.

BERLIN, Jan. 2.—Reports reached here by cable that the German minister had offered the good offices of Germany as mediator between Chile and the United States. These reports have been semi-officially denied. The foreign department does not think it necessary to telegraph the minister asking how the rumor arose as no instructions warranting interference have been sent him.

The Woman Won't Tell.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—So far the police have been unable to gain any information from the woman arrested in Oakland as an accomplice of Sly and Hedpeth, the Glendale, Missouri, train robbers. The woman will neither admit nor deny that she is Hedpeth's wife, and maintains an obstinate silence.

The Chan-Na-Gael.

DUBLIN, Jan. 2.—The castle officials state that after the first feeling of alarm had passed away the consequences of the explosion were found to be less serious than they had feared. An expenditure of a few pounds, they say, will repair the damage. The police council met as usual after the explosion. Chief of Police Mallow says that the force of the explosion was exerted chiefly in an outward direction and that it was possibly an explosion of gas.

Plumb's Successor.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 2.—The States Topeka, Kas., special says: the most notable applicant for senatorial honors this morning is Bishop W. Perkins, ex-congressman from the third district. Major E. N. Morrill seemingly leads the field, for the impression is growing more and more that no Topeka man will be honored. The governor will give no information except that he will make the appointment this week.

Mexican Troubles.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 2.—At the war department it is ascertained that the Mexican government is moving troops from the interior garrisons to strengthen the army operating against Garza. It is now estimated that there are fully 3000 men guarding the long frontier from Laredo to Matamoros. The extra troops are being sent to further protect it from Garza.

A SAD HONEYMOON.

A BRIDEGROOM NINE CHRISTMAS COMMITS SUICIDE.

No Cause is Given for the Strange Action—Well Known Parties in San Pedro.

HILL VS. CAMPBELL.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 2.—Some time ago the Senator elect from New York was invited to participate as a guest of honor in the Jackson banquet to be given early this month. Then the story went out that the affair was mainly intended to boom Hill for the Presidency, where at the members of the organization, or some of them, waxed wroth and adopted resolutions, which, while denying that any "boom" was contemplated, incidentally reflected upon Gov. Campbell. So much comment has been aroused by this action that some of the members demand that the objectionable resolution shall be expunged from the records and a special meeting for that purpose be called. The membership promises to turn out in force and the friends of Gov. Campbell are credited with the intention of making a fight in favor of allowing the record to remain just as it is.

IMPERILED TEXANS.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 2.—The alarm on the border over Garza's uprising is becoming intense. There are many startling rumors in circulation concerning the probable fate of U. S. troops concentrated in Starr and Duval counties. Garza is known to have a force of 5000 desperate men, and if 1000 Mexican troops, who are reported to have murdered General Lereno and then deserted from Garcia, Commander at Mier, Mexico, have made their way to Garza's stronghold on the Texas side, their united forces would give the U. S. troops a hard fight.

It would not be impossible for Garza with a force of 1200 men to capture Fort Ringgold and all the U. S. troops in that section of frontier. He has threatened on several occasions to take Fort Ringgold if it became necessary for him to secure food or military supplies.

EVIDENCE BEING TAKEN NOW

To Rebut the Testimony of the Chilean Government.

The Judge-Advocate-General Collecting Matter to Lay Before Congress.

WASHINGTON, January 2, 1892.—Noted dispatches have been received at the department today touching on the Chilean situation. Secretary Blaine spent several hours at the department of state and saw the British Minister and several other persons, but Senator Montt, the Chilean Minister, was not among the visitors. At the navy department it was admitted that Judge-Advocate-General Kemy was on his way to San Francisco to make inquiry into the Baltimore incident, on the arrival of that vessel. The testimony will be reduced to form and turned over to the department of state to be used in meeting the representations to be made by the Chilean government. It may be also regarded as proper to include testimony to be collected by Judge-Advocate-General in the correspondence to be transmitted to Congress before the latter part of the present month.

NEW POSTAL CARDS.

Some Unique and Handsome Improvements.

Postmaster Cope has his order in at the department for new postal cards styled A and C which will be used in addition to the old style.

The assignment comprised 10,000 A's and 10,000 C's. The first is of a fine quality of light-dried paper, and the second is of a strong, finely finished paper.

Size "A" is a beautiful little card just suited to society uses, while the "C" size is much larger than the old postal card and especially designed for business purposes. A good long letter could be written on the back of this card, and will doubtless prove very acceptable to the business world. The following is a description of each of the new cards:

Level with the top of which are the words, "Postal card" and "One cent," in small ornamental solid letters. The card is printed in dark blue.

"C"—Size, 3 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches. Color of paper, light mail. Design: In the upper right hand corner is a portrait of Gen. Grant, in all respects the same as that on the "A" card. To the left of this, in heavily shaded German letters are the words "United States of America," surrounded by a fine ornamental line forming a panel, below which, in a separate panel, with ornate ends, are the words, "This side is for address only," in plain small letters. Above the whole in somewhat ornamental lettering are the words, "Postal card one cent," without separation excepting the ordinary spaces between the words. The card is printed in black.

From time to time the business men of the community are called upon to patronize various catch-penny advertising schemes. All sorts of "inducements" are being held out and nine cases out of ten the value received is on one side. Business men should fight shy of strangers with big promises.

POLICE AND COURT.

Notes in and about the Police Station and Court Room.

The gang of young Mexican bloods who were arrested New Year's night for a breach of the Edmund's act, were fined $1 each by Recorder Swartz. Chico Casara, the Mexican woman in the case, was mulcted $3.

In the case of Alec Rheinsteint, who was tried for flourishing a gun New Year's eve, the jury disagreed.

THE FIRE FIEND.

A NARROW ESCAPE FROM A BIG BLAZE LAST NIGHT.

The Williams House, on Washington Street, Has a mighty Close Call.

About 10 o'clock last night a cry of fire was heard at the Regan house, an attach of the Williams hotel, used as a lodging house. A reporter of the Arizona Republican was soon at the scene of action and assisted the frightened women and drunken man in extinguishing the flames. Logan, the blind man who has been begging on the streets for the past three weeks, was the only person in the room where the fire started. His attendant, a lad of fourteen, had gone down town, leaving the drunken blind man alone. The old man became infuriated because he was left alone and in his mad raving accidentally knocked over the lamp which had evidently been sitting on one of the beds setting it on fire. He was almost suffocated but managed to get out of the room and give the alarm. The loss is not heavy as the room was only furnished plain. The three beds, together with the carpet, were a total loss, and the scanty furniture was entirely ruined. It seems the old man had invested the money given him for sweet charity's sake, in the whiskey, with which he became intoxicated.

IT WAS IN HIS NAME.

An Unusually Large Week in the City Social Circles.

CHARITY BALL A GRAND AFFAIR.

A Description of Some of the More Striking Costumes.

Private Parties—Fortnightly Club—Personal Mention—Private Theatricals.

The good old custom of receiving callers and keeping open house on New Year's day has become almost obsolete, principally through its abuse, and in this city it was observed to but a slight extent. Those ladies who were courageous enough to welcome the few stray callers, deserve credit for their hospitality in spite of Dame Fashion, and we trust the old custom may be revived in the near future, without the disadvantages which has had the tendency to make it so unpopular.

Lenon Season.

Now that the holiday festivities have been so pleasantly celebrated, we may look forward to what may be considered a new season. Many social events could be crowded in before the Lenon season, and we shall doubtless have something to chronicle during that time.

For Christ's Sweet Sake.

The principal event of the past week, was the Charity ball, given on the evening of January 1st, by the Ladies' Benevolent Society. The many handsome toilets of the ladies, were especially noticeable, and the music, under the leadership of Prof. Heister, was highly praised. The success of the party was mainly due to the efforts of the following ladies, who served on the different committees.

The following were present: Governor and Mrs. Irwin, Gen. G. W. Kretzing, Col. J. T. Kretzing, Judge E. B. Sherman, Judge Collins, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hiller, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Goldman, Judge and Mrs. C. F. Ainsworth, Chief Justice and Mrs. Gooding, Hon. Frank Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Goldman, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lount, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Fickes, Col. and Mrs. C. S. Masten, Dr. and Mrs. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brill, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. D. Novinger, Mrs. Orme, Mrs. Thibodeau, Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. St. Claire, Mrs. Ganz, Mrs. Dr. McIntyre, Misses Jeffries, Masten, Graham, King, Bury, Buck, Caruthers, Sisk, Copes, Schriver, Dobbins, Kemp, Hurley, Shultz, Moody, Slackey, Messrs. Williams, Wentworth, Ezra Thayer, E. Angelman, Drachman, W. M. Breakenridge, J. Peck, W. H. Peck, Morris, Buck and Messrs. McNeil and Kenedy from Tempe.

Tables were placed on the stage, and the popular caterers, Phillips & Leggett, served refreshments to the hungry and thirsty revellers throughout the evening. About sixty couples occupied the floor and enjoyed the hop for "sweet charity's sake." A description of some of the toilets is appended.

Mrs. Gov. Irwin wore a gown of broad silk, in train, with an overdress of handsome black lace, and angel sleeves, ornaments, diamonds.

At The Insane Asylum.

The entertainment given by some of our best local talent at the Insane asylum, on Wednesday last, proved to be thoroughly enjoyable, and the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly gave their services for the benefit of those afflicted inmates, deserve great credit and praise for the undertaking.

The quartettes by Madames Talbot and Alexander, and Reverends Pearson and Bliff, were well rendered, and the instrumental music under the direction of Mr. Wickhamer, was greatly appreciated. Dr. and Mrs. Miller received the guests most graciously, and made a most favorable impression on the ladies and gentlemen who went from Phoenix to enjoy the entertainment.

Major J. C. Jordan and family of Tempe, have recently moved to Phoenix and are occupying a cottage on the corner of Madison and Yuma streets. Miss Jordan will be welcomed by the young society people.

THE PASSER-BY.

There is one beautiful thing about the Mexican Government. When they catch a criminal there is no unnecessary amount of time lost. He is tried convicted, and the following morning, taken out to face a little pyrotechnic display at the temple of a regular army gun. That is all. The simplicity of the thing is touching, and it touches the right spot.

Balzac says that a woman's character finds expression in the collars that she wears as well as in her taste in dress. He says that women who wear black habitually are to be avoided because they are full of suspicious, jealous disposition and are never good tempered.

Those who wear yellow and green are over quarrelsome. White indicates coquetry. The gentle, thoughtful pussycat sort of woman likes to clothe herself in pink. Pearl gray is affected by women who think the world doesn't do the right thing by them, and lilac is worn by beauties who have passed their prime.
